

Nipple Ointment

Common Use: This is a topical ointment consisting of an antibiotic, antifungal and steroid often used to help soothe and protect sore, cracked nipples in breastfeeding mothers.

Directions: Wash hands before and after use. Apply sparingly after breast feeding or as prescribed by your doctor. Dab or wipe off excess ointment before next feeding.

Precaution: Apply medication exactly as directed by your physician. Do not use differently without your physicians authorization.

Nipple Ointment

Common Use: This is a topical ointment consisting of an antibiotic, antifungal and steroid often used to help soothe and protect sore, cracked nipples in breastfeeding mothers.

Directions: Wash hands before and after use. Apply sparingly after breast feeding or as prescribed by your doctor. Dab or wipe off excess ointment before next feeding.

Precaution: Apply medication exactly as directed by your physician. Do not use differently without your physicians authorization.

Nipple Ointment

Common Use: This is a topical ointment consisting of an antibiotic, antifungal and steroid often used to help soothe and protect sore, cracked nipples in breastfeeding mothers.

Directions: Wash hands before and after use. Apply sparingly after breast feeding or as prescribed by your doctor. Dab or wipe off excess ointment before next feeding.

Precaution: Apply medication exactly as directed by your physician. Do not use differently without your physicians authorization.