

Vaginal Application Cream

Common Use: This medication is a cream to be used intravaginally, to the external vaginal area, or to the urethral area.

Directions: Follow the directions for using this medication provided by your doctor. Wash your hands before and after use. Apply prescribed amount of cream with applicator or to external area as directed by your physician.

Precaution: Apply medication exactly as directed by your physician. Do not use differently without your physicians authorization. May cause irritation to vagina.

Vaginal Application Cream

Common Use: This medication is a cream to be used intravaginally, to the external vaginal area, or to the urethral area.

Directions: Follow the directions for using this medication provided by your doctor. Wash your hands before and after use. Apply prescribed amount of cream with applicator or to external area as directed by your physician.

Precaution: Apply medication exactly as directed by your physician. Do not use differently without your physicians authorization. May cause irritation to vagina.

Vaginal Application Cream

Common Use: This medication is a cream to be used intravaginally, to the external vaginal area, or to the urethral area.

Directions: Follow the directions for using this medication provided by your doctor. Wash your hands before and after use. Apply prescribed amount of cream with applicator or to external area as directed by your physician.

Precaution: Apply medication exactly as directed by your physician. Do not use differently without your physicians authorization. May cause irritation to vagina.